

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Brookings, South Dakota, the county seat of Brookings County, was founded in 1883 by one of South Dakota's pioneer promoters, Wilmot Brookings; and,

Whereas, Brookings is a vibrant city with friendly people, hospitality, integrity, and opportunism that provides endless entertainment such as biking, swimming, camping, fishing, golfing, South Dakota State Art Museum, Children's Museum, and the annual Brookings Summer Arts Festival; and,

Whereas, Brookings is the headquarters of a number of manufacturing companies and agricultural operations and is home to South Dakota State University, the largest institution of higher education in the state; and,

Whereas, A community on the move, with a vision of the future, Brookings has continued to prosper because of honest, hard-working, family-oriented people, who make it a tremendous place to live and grow; and,

Whereas, Now, state government is going on the road to the people of Brookings in a unique program called "Capital for a Day"; and,

Whereas, "Capital for a Day" is designed to provide a local forum whereby an exchange of ideas, information, and concerns can occur among the governor, cabinet officials, representatives for the private business sector, local elected officials, special interest groups, and the general public:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 18, 2017, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Tenth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seventeen.

Dennis Daugaard
